

From the Director of the Diana Award to Actionwork

Hi Andy

Just to say a warm thank you for including us in the Conference. It was a wonderful, vibrant event carrying a very strong message about the positive ways in which young people can contribute to tackling bullying.

I was particularly impressed as to how you managed to get young people from all over the UK there in such numbers. We are organizing a conference for our Award Holders in the spring and it would be wonderful to have your expert input on how to attract young people in such numbers?!

I am sure you are totally exhausted today but look forward to hearing from you once you have recovered!

Again many thanks and congratulations for a magnificent event. It really set the week alight!!

With warm wishes

Maggie
